

ACCOLADES FOR DOI CHAANG COFFEE

Doi Chaang coffee was recently reviewed by Kenneth Davids, a renowned and widely-published and coffee connoisseur, who conducts blind, expert cuppings of coffees and reports the findings in the form of 100-point reviews, much like those that exist in the wine industry. Kenneth's reviews can be found at: www.coffeereview.com

SINGLE ESTATE PEABERRY MEDIUM ROAST

"Pure, refreshing coffee. Sweetly acidic and honey-toned in the aroma, with floral and coffee fruit (tart cherry) notes. In the cup softly acidic, delicate in mouthfeel, crisp but very sweet in structure, with continued notes of tart coffee cherry, honey and flowers, together with a slight, deepening butterscotch-like pungency. In the finish the sweetness fades, but the fundamental flavor notes persist far into the long finish."

SINGLE ORIGIN MEDIUM ROAST

"Suave, impressively balanced coffee. Flower and orange notes in the aroma. In the cup softly acidic with a hint of white wine; medium in body but round in impression with continued floral and orange notes and a hint of milk chocolate. Clean, sweet finish. A quiet, gently exotic breakfast cup."
